

All-Party Parliamentary Group on Antibiotics
&
All-Party Parliamentary Group on Malaria & Neglected
Tropical Diseases

Impact of antimicrobial resistant Salmonella infections and malaria upon treatment

Tuesday 23rd May 2017, 1530 – 1700hrs, Jubilee Room,
Portcullis House, London SW1

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1515 – 1530 | Arrival |
| 1530 - 1535 | Welcome and overview – Jeremy Lefroy MP,
Chair, All-Party Parliamentary Group on Malaria &
Neglected Tropical Diseases |
| 1535 – 1550 | Drug-resistant malaria in the UK - is it a threat?
Speaker TBC |
| 1550 – 1605 | Severe malaria and Salmonella co-infection in children: a silent emergency? Professor Kathryn Maitland, Professor of Tropical Paediatric Infectious
Diseases, Imperial College London, UK |
| 1605 – 1620 | Accurate diagnosis of infection to inform the use of antibiotics and antimalarials. Dr
Prudence Hamade, Senior Technical Officer,
Malaria Consortium, London UK |
| 1620 – 1700 | Question and answer session Julian Sturdy MP,
Chair, All-Party Parliamentary Group on Antibiotics |